PROCLAMATION

- Whereas, Child abuse and neglect is a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone; and
- Whereas, Child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional and physical effects that have lifelong consequences for victims of abuse; and
- Whereas, Protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional and developmental well-being of children; and
- Whereas, Prevention remains the best defense for our children and families; and
- Whereas, Effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the meaningful connections and partnerships created between child welfare professionals, education, health, community- and faith-based organizations, businesses, law enforcement agencies, and families; and
- Whereas, Our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of the city of Columbus; and
- Whereas, Columbus must make every effort to promote programs and activities that create strong and thriving children and families; and
- Whereas, We acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and support the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, and nurturing environment.

Now, therefore, I, James B. Bulkley, Mayor of the City of Columbus, Nebraska, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 2022, as: in Columbus, Nebraska, and encourage all citizens to recognize this month by dedicating ourselves to the task of improving the quality of life for all children and families.
