

Your Business Assistance Services

We understand the challenges you face and want to insure your business is equipped to thrive. Chambers Plan confidential business supports from Arcora offer expert resources and assistance in human resources, legal and financial matters, providing the guidance needed to strengthen your business foundation and drive sustainable growth.

The Details

Your supports include unlimited access to:

- A comprehensive digital business library. Find information and resources (sample forms, guides, articles, podcasts and videos) for managing your business, your people and yourself. You can access this site through your provider.
- Human resources support. Get guidance for a wide range of human resources issues (up to 2 hours per issue), from employer obligations to employee relations and everything in between.

You also have up to 9 hours (combined) of:

- Professional legal guidance. Connect with lawyers with in-depth, specialized expertise in many areas of law, who are able to provide guidance relevant to all Canadian jurisdictions.
- Professional financial guidance. Access support from impartial financial and business experts in a range of industries, who are accredited to offer guidance at any stage of your business.

As the business owner/head of your organization*, you have up to 3 hours of:

- Leadership coaching. Access solution-focused virtual coaching with a certified, professional coach for a wide range of topics, including communications and workplace relations, time management and delegation, skill development, professional growth and leadership development.

* Coaching hours are for one business owner/head of organization per company and are not transferable.

Access Help AACORA

1. Reach out. Log onto your my-benefits[®] portal and click on the Business Assistance Services link. Once there you can connect with Arcora and get the process started.
2. Connect. For HR, legal or financial questions, our team will match you with the professional in the Arcora Network best suited to meet your needs. Coaching requests will include an invite to our integrated platform.

It's really that simple to get where you want to be.