Land Acknowledgment Statement Gayle Foster Lewis

Welcome Travis Norvell

Call to Worship Led by Gayle Foster Lewis

One: All you with grumbling stomachs, hungry for bread, nourishment, and flourishing:
Many: draw near to God.
One: All you with dry throats, thirsting for water, wisdom, and justice:
Many: draw near to God.
One: All you with empty arms, searching for a warm embrace, a meaningful life, and a loving community:
Many: draw near to God.
One: Now let us sing of this desire; please stand and sing hymn number 173

*Stand if you are able

We thank Elizebeth Brazeal for her gift of music today.

Elizebeth (Ellie) started singing with the choir in September 2023 and joined Judson as a member in December 2023. She is also the chair of our Missions Committee. She enjoys singing with her church family, and when she is not singing, she is either watching old movies or baking. She is currently a student of John De Haan.

Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

We acknowledge that “we the people,” our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator’s face in everything.

Scenes at Judson

Fran Hirsch and Jean Krinke providing special music on Sunday, July 28, 2024

Acme Tuckpointing started working on the chimney on Monday. The scaffolding goes from the alley up to the chimney. A huge thank you to the Meals on Wheels people for adapting their deliveries and schedule for the second time in a month. There is no access to the Ann Judson Kitchen, so food delivery is being made through the arcade entrance and the drivers are using the door on 41st street by the alley. The schedule is to be done with the project on Friday, August 2.
