Call to Worship (responsive reading) “Credo”

led by Déadra Moore

One: Can we believe in truth as a living Reality?

Many: Not captured in theory or a creed,
but revealed to those who love;

One: the truth of Jesus,
the Spirit of truth,
the truth of God.

Many: Can we trust?

One: Not blindly but open eyed and bold
as a child climbing into a mother's lap;

Many: the truth of Jesus,
the Spirit of truth,
the truth of God.

One: Can we serve?

Many: Not as someone trapped in an unjust system, but as someone forgiven, loved, and freed by

One: the truth of Jesus,
the Spirit of truth,
the truth of God.

Praise ears that hear the children’s cries
Praise truth that counters cruel lies
Praise hearts that value human worth
Praise lives that build a better earth.

Praise eyes that see all human need
Praise minds that cast out selfish greed
Praise lips that challenge those in power
Praise those who struggle every hour. Amen

Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

One: Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

All: Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

One: We acknowledge that “we the people,” our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

All: Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator’s face in everything.

The Victorians used these origami riddles as secret friendship tokens and love notes (one even appeared in the film Emma), while in Japan, they have been used as little storage containers. Learn the fascinating history, make your own puzzle purse, have a treat and go home with instructions so you can make more.

PRAYER AND YOU—ZOOM JANUARY 28 - "Prayer and You" is the topic for our two Wild & Precious Zoom Conversations (aka "Spiritual Voyagers"). Join us, 7:00-8:30 pm, on Tuesday, January 28. Keith Ford will send out the zoom link: if you are not already on our email list, let him know, and he will add you to it.

You are invited to join us whether you never pray or pray all the time--whether your prayer life is traditional, or based on nature, or meditation, or relationships. What perspective of prayer did you grow up with, and what is your perspective now? How does prayer "work" (or "not work") for you?

Here are two quotes to consider...

* Pray without ceasing (from the Bible-- I Thessalonians 5:17)

* I don't know exactly what a prayer is. I do know how to pay attention...

(from the beginning of Mary Oliver's "wild and precious life" poem)

CHURCH DIRECTORY. There is a large copy of the current directory in the back of the church. Please check it out and make sure we have your correct information (address, phone, email). If you are not listed, please add your information. After a couple of weeks, updated directories will be available.

BOOKS ARE AVAILABLE FOR THE JANUARY SERMON SERIES. "8 Habits of Love: Overcome Fear and Transform Your Life" are available for purchase ($5) in the back of the sanctuary. The habits will be paired with a Psalm for each Sunday. But why stop at one Psalm? What if together, we read the entire book of Psalms (all 150 of them) during the 50 days of the sermon series (Jan 5 - Feb 23). If only you had a guide to do this! On Sunday, copies of the Psalms will be on the back of the sanctuary on Sunday.
