Prelude "A Simple Song" from MASS Leonard Bernstein

Land Acknowledgment Statement Kathy Urbaniak

Welcome Travis Norvell

Call to Worship led by Kathy Urbaniak

One: With friends and strangers,
with family and neighbors, we gather:
Many: Come among us, Healing God,
with that love which never ends.

One: With faith reaching out to touch,
with hearts straining to trust, we hope:
Many: Come among us, Friend of the broken,
with your compassion which makes us whole.

One: With word and wonder,
with silence and song, we wait:
Many: Come among us, Dryer of our tears,
to lift us to our feet to follow you

Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

We acknowledge that "we the people," our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator's face in everything.

SCENES AT JUDSON

Jason and Thea started coming to Judson in the spring of 2023, fell in love with the community right away, and were members by the fall. Music is a big part of our lives. Lots of singing and dancing in our house. But this is the first time we've ever sung together in front of a group of people. They had special guests sing with them, on a couple of numbers, Susan and Austin Mason.

Thanks for the opportunity, Judson family!
Love, Thea & Jason

Our special music on Sunday, June 30 was Jason Keppe and Thea Taylor
