Barbara York and Friends

Scott Simpson is grateful for teachers. Robert Elledge, Gene Trowbridge Ed Melichar, Elliott Fine, Dr. Frank Bencriscutto, honored to play with Jmmy Martin, Clark Terry, Gladys Knight, Jack Gillespie, and Dick Whitbeck at the Guthrie Theater, The Classic Big Band, John Phillip Sousa Memorial Band, and has been pit drummer for many fine shows.

Alan Husby is a retired MPS teacher who now plays guitar with various groups around the Twin Cities. He recently was the music director for the Lake Harriet Players presentation of The Wizard of Oz.

Lyndy Zabel has played in the American Legion in Bovey, MN, Shakey's Pizza in Fargo, N.D., a Disco Club in Fresno, Calif., on the streets of New York City, Port-au-Prince, the French Quarter in New Orleans, the hills of Jamaica, the coast of Costa Rica, for the General Conference of the United Methodist Church in Fort Worth, Texas, the recital halls of Concordia University in Moorhead, MN, the MN State Fair, Madeline Island, a snake-handling church in Alabama, and points in-between. He has written 100 songs, some of which are really kind of good. He is retired, living in Maple Grove and married to a wonderful woman named Judy.

Barbara York has been singing since childhood. Initially attending Wayne State University in Detroit, as a music major in voice, with an eye on music therapy, she was sidetracked by life, but singing continued.
She has performed in musicals, sung at numerous weddings and funerals, and with the jazz group, the Jumpin' Jehoshaphats, and the Mouldy Figs. She has sung across the country and abroad, including MN, WI, SD, HI, Chicago, Indianapolis, Detroit, Louisville, Jamaica, Haiti, and Sierra Leone.
