Offertory Hymn "Bless Now, O God the Journey"

Aurelia

(remain seated)

1. Bless now, O God, the journey that all your people make, the path through noise and silence, the way of give and take.
We yearn for holy freedom while often we are bound.
together we are seeking the road where faith is found.
2. Bless sojourners and pilgrims who share this winding way, whose hope burns through the terrors, whose love sustains the day.
We yearn for holy freedom while often we are bound.
Together we are seeking the road where faith is found.
3. Divine Eternal Lover, you meet us on the road.
We wait for lands of promise where milk and honey flow.
but waiting not for places, you meet us all around.
Our covenant is written on roads, as faith is found.

Doxology

Lasst Uns Erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow. Praise God, all creatures high and low.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Praise God, to Jesus fully known: Creator Word, and Spirit one.

Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Blessing

Travis Norvell

Postlude

“What You Mean to Me”

Jason Freese

*Stand if you are able

We thank Doug Weatherhead for his gift of music today.

Bring Your Hopes, Bring Your Doubts, Feed Your Soul.

Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

We acknowledge that “we the people,” our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator’s face in everything.
