Land Acknowledgment Statement Carley Watts

Welcome Travis Norvell

Opening Hymn "Praise the Source of Faith and Learning" Hyfrydol

Verse 1
Praise the source of faith and learning that has sparked and stoked the mind with a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray.

Verse 2
God of wisdom, we acknowledge that our science and our art and the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound where your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

Verse 3
May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets taught.
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed lest we justify some terror
with an antiquated creed

Verse 4
As two currents in a river
fight each other's undertow, till converging they deliver
one coherent steady flow, Blend, O God, our faith and learning till they carve a single course, till they join as one, returning praise and thanks to you, the Source.

*Stand if you are able

We thank John De Haan, Jim Wentink, and the choir for their beautiful music this past year. They are taking the summer off to give you, friends, and members of the congregation a chance to show your talents this summer. There is still room to sign up. The sign-up sheet is located in the back of the sanctuary.

Bring Your Hopes, Bring Your Doubts, Feed Your Soul.

Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

We acknowledge that "we the people," our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator's face in everything.
