Second Lesson Luke 8:43-48 Travis Norvell

43 Now there was who had been suffering from bleeding for twelve years, and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her.
44 She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, and immediately her bleeding stopped.
45 "Who touched me?" Jesus asked. When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the people are crowding and pressing against you."
46 But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; I know that power has gone out from me."
47 When the woman realized that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him and how she had been immediately healed.
48 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace."

Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

One: Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

All: Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

One: We acknowledge that "we the people," our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

All: Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator's face in everything.

Special Announcements

Children & Youth News - We are sad to report that Jessica has resigned as Lead Child Care Provider due to the family moving. We need people to help until the position is refilled. Can you spend one Sunday reading a story to the children and leading a simple activity? Email Carolyn if you can! This Sunday will be a Halloween story and craft. We'd also love your help spreading the word to find a new Child Care person!

Your help needed after the service!

We need several able-bodied people to move some chairs and tables up to the Providence Room from the Youth Room. This should require no more than 15 minutes of your time. Join us down in the Youth Room after the service if you can help.
Thank you from the Property Committee!

All Souls Online Meditation - What messages of wisdom and strength can our familial, cultural & spiritual ancestors offer us during these days of waning sunlight and stressful current events? Join Carolyn for a guided visualization, music and imagery that grounds us in the peace and compassion of those who came before us. Email Carolyn for the link ckolovitz@judsonchurch.org.
Saturday November 2 via zoom 10:00 – 11:00am

Wreath of Remembrance – All Saints Day Sunday, November 3, 2024 - On All Saints Day, Judson community members remember those who have died. On Sunday, November 3rd, you will have the opportunity to say your loved one's name and, if you want, add their name to our Wreath of Remembrance.
There are two baskets of ribbons in the back of the sanctuary. Please include your loved one's name on a ribbon and add it to our wreath on the 3rd. We'll have a special ritual during our Sunday service to honor our loved ones.
