Judson Church Land Acknowledgement

Place is more than just a piece of land. It is a piece of who we are. For too long, we have associated this place where Judson Church sits with our European/American roots, forgetting the people who called this place home for centuries before us.

Mini-SO ta Mah-CO-cheh, Land where the Waters Reflect the Sky and specifically this part of the Twin Cities is the ancestral home of the Da CO tah wah-PEH-koo-tay people. It is home to their creation stories; it is where they hunted, fished, harvested, and cared for the land, raised families, celebrated life in community, and laid their loved ones to rest.

We acknowledge that “we the people,” our ancestors and governments, forcibly removed the wah-PEH-koo-tay from their ancestral lands through relocation, warfare, execution, imprisonment in concentration camps, starvation, disease, and forced assimilation. Treaties were made and subsequently broken by us. We remember and lament the history of this land.

Today we acknowledge and appreciate our Da CO tah, Anisha NAH-bay, and other Indigenous peoples as neighbors and fellow citizens. We commit to do better by our neighbors, to stand with them and to learn from them as we seek to create a community that sees the Creator’s face in everything.

SCENES AT JUDSON

Our new power pole in the alley. It was replaced on Wednesday, July 17. Power was out in the building from 10 am to 3 pm on Wednesday. Everything is back up and running well. It was supposed to be replaced on Tuesday, but due to the storm damage it had to be rescheduled.

The summer musician for 7-14-24 was Doug Weatherhead. Doug filled in for John Deinhart, who was originally scheduled. Doug is a member of Judson Church, sings in the choir, and composes music. When he plays at Judson, we always get to hear a composition by him. We just performed a Requiem that he composed a few years ago. Doug plays with other bands and is a regular at the annual Baystock Music Fest. We will get to hear him again in August when he sings with the Gospel 5, which is scheduled to provide music on August 11, 2024

The boys enjoying a visitor on Sunday, July 14, 2024. She looked like she was enjoying herself.

Meals on Wheels graciously accommodated the change of the replacement pole (we found out at 8 am on Wednesday). They had a lot of the work done by 10:30, so they moved the packed-up meals outside to 41st street, where their drivers picked up the food for delivery. Thank you Meals on Wheels.
