

Lynn Fitch
STATE TREASURER

Treasurer Fitch to Address the Mississippi Municipal League

On Thursday, I will have the honor of addressing the legislative conference of the Mississippi Municipal League. The League is composed of elected officials from cities and towns across the State.

The Office of the State Treasurer routinely works with these officials on a number of issues, including securing public money in qualified financial institutions, distributing tax and severance payments on behalf of the State, and establishing financial literacy programs in public schools.