

Documentaries & Discussion

Movies to Move Us

Toward Racial Justice

Wednesdays, 6:30-8:30 pm * September 25 through October 30

Madison Christian Community, 7118 Old Sauk Road, Madison

Attend all 6 weeks to experience the full scope of the series, or come to as many as you're able.

Info: Sonja@theMCC.net

September 25—Mirrors of Privilege: Making Whiteness Visible

Helps bridge the gap between good intentions and meaningful change by featuring stories from white men and women on overcoming issues of unconscious bias and entitlement.

October 2—The Way Home: Women Talk about Race in America

64 women representing a cross-section of cultures (Indigenous, African-American, Arab/Middle Eastern, Asian, European-American, Jewish, Latina, and Multiracial) share their experience of racism in America. Candid conversations offer rare access into multi-dimensional worlds invisible to outsiders.

October 9—Light in the Shadows: Staying at the Table When the Conversation about Race Gets Hard

Frank conversation about race among 10 women who participated in the filming of The Way Home. Uses their conflict as a learning tool to illumine how conversations on race often break down along lines of race and power.

October 16—The Color of Fear

Looks at the state of race relations in America through the eyes of 8 men of Asian, European, Latino, and African Descent. Reveals the pain and scars that racism causes, which leads to a deeper sense of understanding and trust.

October 23—Cracking the Codes

Addresses the causes and consequences of systemic inequity to disentangle internal beliefs, attitudes and pre-judgments, and builds skills to address the structural drivers of social and economic inequities.

October 30—Healing Justice

Explores causes and consequences of the current North American justice system on marginalized communities. Addresses the school-to-prison pipeline, the need for comprehensive criminal justice reform, and the importance of healing and restorative practices

Most films produced by World Trust Foundation, whose mission is to ignite courage and expand capacity to create a world free from racism through film and dialogue. Color of Fear produced by StirFry Seminars & Consulting, whose goal is to revolutionize the field of diversity training through documentary films and seminars.