

Faith and Freedom Tour

BIRMINGHAM, MONTGOMERY & SELMA

Join this pilgrimage exploring American slavery and Black American Civil Rights in Alabama. Enhance your on-going commitment to racial justice by engaging in deeper conversations of racism in the United States and how it intersects with one's faith.

When: March 13-20 or 20-27, 2020
This 6 day bus tour is intergenerational, ages 13 & up. Bus Leaves from Milwaukee, WI

Cost: $1,075 per person double occupancy which includes transportation, lodging in 3 star hotel, tour guide and entrance fees

Register at www.raceandfaith.org

Highlights of the Tour:
16th Street Baptist Church
Edmund Pettus Bridge
The Legacy Museum

The National Memorial for Peace and Justice

for more information: rhonda@raceandfaith.org (414) 736-0523

Faith and Freedom Tour

Please e-mail rhonda@raceandfaith.org with any other questions www.raceandfaith.org (414) 736-0523

Do I have to ride the bus to Alabama?

No, you do not have to ride the bus. You can fly into Birmingham early Saturday morning and meet group at hotel. Trip cost w/o taking bus to AL, $900

Can I still join the trip?

Yes, you can still join us but make your down payment of $200 ASAP. remainder of fee is due by Feb 15.
you can register at www.raceandfaith.org Go to Race and Faith Travel under the Events tab

Can I have my own room?

Yes, you can have your own room for an additional $450

Where do I send payment?

You can send payment to Atonement Lutheran Church,
memo Race&Faith Tour; S70 W16244 Martin Drive |
MUSKEGO, WI 53150

Will there be activities on the bus?

Yes there will be activities on the bus and leading up to our experience together. This trip is hoping to create community before, during and after the experience.

Why is this trip intergenerational?

This subject matter is important to the fabric of our country and we must dialogue across the generations to create a more cohesive and honest narrative that will enrich our collective memory. People ages 14&up are welcome.