The Practice of Finding: How Gratitude Leads the Way to Enough

An Eastertide Retreat

Seeking is in vogue these days. Many of us are continually striving and seeking — for one thing or another. This retreat presents the spiritual practice of finding as the antidote to chronic seeking, the awareness of having received enough. Based on Holly Whitcomb's latest book, The Practice of Finding, this retreat is a guide to that surprising journey of discovery. Holly writes in the introduction to her book: "The practice of finding has been saving my life for a long time. It is an old friend that has stayed by my side during times of lavish joy and exuberance as well as in times of debilitating grief and loss." Ponder the words: practice, finding, enough. You will marvel at what you have already found and what you readily possess. (Holly's new book will be for sale at this retreat.) Deadline for registering is April 27.

Our retreat leader: Rev. Holly Whitcomb, Director of Kettlewood Retreats, is a widely traveled speaker and spiritual director. She is the author of five books, the latest of which is The Practice of Finding.

Kettlewood Retreats invites you to this Eastertide retreat at Cedar Valley. Come join us in the countryside of the Kettle Moraine on 100 spectacular acres near West Bend. The noon meal is included.

To register for this retreat, please write a check for $50.00 to Rev. Holly Whitcomb and send it to: 2095 Elm Tree Ct., Elm Grove, WI 53122. Include your name, address, e-mail, and phone number(s). Upon receipt of your registration, you will receive a map. For more information, call (262) 784-5593.
