

CHURCH IN THE AFTERSCAPE

Finding hope in hospitality and holy conversation

"... As they talked...with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them...." ~ Luke 24:15

Annual Meeting of the Southwest Wisconsin Association United Church of Christ

We are called to lead in a moment that can be described as post-COVID, post-Christian, and postmodern. Ours is a time after, in which there is a growing sense that one era is winding down while the next has yet to take shape. Join us as we consider what faithful ministry in the afterscape might look like.

Saturday, May 8, 2021
9:00am -12:00 (via Zoom)

- Worship & Song with Bryan Sirchio
- Keynote: Dr. Christopher James
- Breakout Sessions
  - Joining God in Dane County* led by Dr. Christopher James
  - Leadership in the Afterscape* led by Pastor Zayna Thomley
  - Mission in the Afterscape* led by Pastor Leslie Schenk
- Annual Business Meeting

Lay Delegates, Ministers, and Visitors are all encouraged to attend! Use the form provided or register online: wcucc.org, "Associations" tab.

Registration Deadline: April 24

Our Keynote Speaker will be Rev. Dr. Christopher James, Associate Professor of Evangelism and Missional Christianity at the University of Dubuque Theological Seminary.

He will draw upon his research among churches in Seattle and Dane County to offer hope and practical wisdom for faithful ministry and mission in the afterscape.
