

A Rare Opportunity:

A Sunday Message by Sister Helen Prejean

Sunday, April 12, 2026 | 10am Worship

Brookfield Congregational Church

We are honored to welcome Sister Helen Prejean — a Roman Catholic nun, author of Dead Man Walking, and known around the world for her justice advocacy — who will share a message rooted in the passage "Love Your Enemy."

Open to all. A reception and book signing will follow the service. Join us in person or live stream. Visit www.brookcc.org for the streaming link.

"If God truly is love, the deeper I love, the more I know God. That's one really good thing about the Christ life — it's grounded in love of flesh and blood people."

— Sister Helen Prejean

Preparing for Sister Helen's Visit

In the weeks leading up to April 12, Head Pastor Laura McLeod will lead a three-part study series centered on Dead Man Walking.

Participants are encouraged to read or listen to the book in advance of the discussions. Each session will be offered both in person at Brookfield Congregational Church and via Zoom.

Thursday, March 5 | 6:00–8:00 pm
Screening of Sister, a documentary about Sister Helen, followed by discussion

Thursday, March 12 | 6:00–7:30 pm
Discussion of Dead Man Walking and the faith components of her journey

Thursday, March 19 | 6:00–7:30 pm
Continued discussion

You're welcome to attend one or all sessions.

To receive a study packet and Zoom link for each study session, please email Pastor Laura at pastor@brookcc.org.
