

Join members of the Plymouth Justice Network at Plymouth UCC, Milwaukee in learning more about repudiating the Doctrine of Discovery

This five-part educational series will center around both the book Unsettling Truths: The Ongoing, Dehumanizing Legacy of the Doctrine of Discovery by Mark Campbell and Soong-Chan Rah and several indigenous scholars.

All sessions are from 7:00-8:15 PM on Zoom to allow the widest participation.

October 17 Sheila Feay-Shaw
Introductions to the book, the topic, and each other

November 21 Guest speaker Mark Freeland, PhD (Ojibwe)
Director of the Electa Quinney Institute at UWM
Understanding the indigenous worldview, the impact of language loss and the history of the Doctrine

January 16 Guest speaker Nathon Breu (Ojibwe) Doctoral Student at UWM
Treaties, their history and broken promises

February 20 Guest speaker Nathon Breu (Ojibwe) Doctoral Student at UWM
What does it mean to be a caretaker of the land?

March 20 Guest Speaker
Larry Littlegeorge (Ho-Chunk)
UCC Lay Leader at the
Ho-Chunk United Church of Christ in Black River Falls
The resiliency of faith through all that has happened

To participate, please gain access to the book for yourself, and email feayshaw@hotmail.com to receive a Zoom link for the series. The pages for reading in preparation for each session will be sent to participants prior to each session.