Intrinsic Hope: Living Courageously in Troubled Times

Expanding social inequality. Unprecedented climate disruption. Powerlessness, grief, despair. We are living in a time of uncertainty in which we fear for our children and grandchildren and for the future of humankind and for our planet. Now more than ever, maintaining hope is an emotional and spiritual necessity. This retreat will focus on the insights of Kate Davies, author of the book Intrinsic Hope, offering practical tools for discovering and cultivating an abiding hope in troubled times. Together, let's explore those insights and hopeful habits. (Registration deadline is Sept. 28.)

Our retreat leader: We welcome back Rev. Bob Ullman, retired United Church of Christ pastor, popular retreat leader, and co-chair of the Wisconsin Conference UCC Creation Care Team.
