

November 2020

November is Entrepreneurship Month

Self-Employment as a Career Pathway

Adapting to a change in environment offers an opportunity for those individuals with an entrepreneurship interest to consider starting a new path for themselves. The career pathway of self-employment is one avenue for those who are unemployed, underemployed, or just looking to shift direction. This month we focus on the path to self-employment whether it be in the direction of starting a small business or just one individual exploring the gig economy. We have updated our resource page that highlights some of the best practices and research to support Entrepreneurs. Check the page throughout the month as we will be posting new items on the page each week.

The Evidence for Self-Employment and Entrepreneurial Programs to Improve Job Seeker Outcomes

During periods of high unemployment and job insecurity, public workforce development professionals seek evidence-based approaches to supporting entrepreneurs. Three Workforce

System Strategies \(WSS\) experimental research and outcome performance analysis reports can help workforce programs increase interest in growing entrepreneurial ventures! Learn about the short- and long-term positive impacts and design of entrepreneurial and self-employment programs for Unemployment Insurance recipients and job seekers described in the following resources:

- The Employment Impact of the New Economy Initiative \(NEI\) on the Detroit Region
- Supporting Self-Employment as a Reemployment Strategy: Impacts of a Pilot Program

Veterans Day

On November 11th, we celebrate Veterans Day and honor those men and women who have served and are serving in the Armed Forces at protecting our nation. The publicly-funded workforce system has a long history of supporting servicemembers and their families as they leave the military and transition into civilian life. WorkforceGPS has a Community dedicated to providing front-line workers and grantees with information on the job market, employment & training programs, grants, legislation, technical assistance, and various other publications and articles related to veterans' specific issues. This landing page is designed to provide links and information for workforce development professionals regarding services to veterans and their spouses.

2020 National Apprenticeship Week - November 8-14, 2020

U.S. DOL has announced the sixth annual National Apprenticeship Week (NAW) 2020 taking place November 8-14! This year the Office of Apprenticeship is encouraging partners to host virtual events. As in past years, we encourage grantees to register their events and proclamations at apprenticeship.gov. NAW 2020 events highlight apprenticeship programs and ultimately support the American workforce in the economic recovery from the impact of the global pandemic.

Coming to WorkforceGPS in December! Voices of Experience: Pivoting into Innovation

Voices of Experience are videos from your colleagues across the country sharing information and lessons learned on various issues and topics. Next month you will hear from these three on how they managed during these challenging times:

- Elizabeth Carver, Program and Training Director, Utah Department of Workforce Services
- Marla Rye, Executive Director, Northern Middle Workforce Board, TN
- Bruce Ferguson, President, CareerSource Northeast Florida
