

November 2024 Newsletter

Field Notes

PAACE'S Annual Conference is back!

Date: April 27-29, 2024

Location: Penn Stater in Penn State

Our Conference team will be searching for adult educators and leaders to deliver a 60–75-minute presentation to participants with innovative and effective tools that will enhance and enrich instruction as well as student support services in the field.

If you know someone who fits this description, encourage them to apply.

More details to come.

ADVOCACY

Success stories are key to securing funding for adult learners—they highlight the real, life-changing impact of education.

Matt, we know you've seen firsthand how powerful these stories can be. Share yours with us and help create more opportunities for adult education!

Our team is working with One + strategies on PAACE's funding request for the next year. Learn how it affects you on our Advocacy page.

Click to Learn More

MEMBERSHIP

To our incredible members,

We truly appreciate you! Your support means everything, and we'll always be here to back you every step of the way. Thank you for being an essential part of our community!

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Our professional development team is hard at work preparing for this year's conference! While there's nothing new to share just yet, rest assured, they're putting together something exciting. Stay tuned for more details soon!

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Niki Straton has accepted the position of organizational coordinator consultant. Marcus Hall has stepped in as the ABLSE chair. Caitlin Griffiths is now our Conference Planning Committee Chair. Lori Como now serves as Vice President of the Board. Give them a shout out on LinkedIn or Facebook!

Follow us on social media <https://paacesite.org/> paaceadulted@gmail.com