Title: Understanding Part-Time College Students in America, Center for American Progress

Many of today's college students are older and balancing college with considerable family and work demands. In many cases, that means they can only pursue their studies part-time. In fact, 37 percent of undergraduates seeking a college degree or other educational credential are attending college part-time. That is 6.5 million students out of the 17 million students enrolled in American colleges.

Title: Integrated Education & Training: A Service Model for Adult Education across the Spectrum

On August 25, the Coalition on Adult and Basic Education presented "Integrated Education & Training: A Service Model for Adult Education across the Spectrum."
