

What My Home Means to Me

My home is special because of my mom my dad and my siblings. It feels good to always have somebody there. I have 12 siblings. One of my siblings is in the Army. I extremely miss him. My house has a basketball hoop. I always play on it. My brother fiancee always comes over. My house is so awesome!