

KERN NATIONAL NETWORK FOR CARING & CHARACTER IN MEDICINE

BECOMING

Conversation and Community for Medical Students

Connect with peers seeking meaning and purpose in medical training and practice

Each month, join fellow medical students from the KNN's seven founding member schools to explore, discuss and practice building specific strengths essential for becoming the physician you want to be. Faculty facilitators will share experiences, and Ray Williams of the Austin Blanton Museum of Art will facilitate conversation and reflection using art.
