

Unique Aspects of Military Divorce: & Ancillary Issues

October 14, 2020
October 28, 2020

Don't miss the FREE FALL Seminar Series: Unique Aspects of Military Divorce: & Ancillary Issues

Do you represent service members, their spouses, or want to start? If so, this October CLE series is designed for you. During this two-part series scheduled for October 14 & 28, Attorneys Francis Flanagan, Kristy Garside and Paul Pederzani will address the unique issues and challenges presented when handling a military divorce, including the complexities of pensions and the recent changes to the military pension law. Moderating sessions 1 & 2 are Attorneys Barbara Margolis and Kerry Reilley Travers.

If you are not a member of the Volunteer Lawyer Program or US Armed Forces Legal Services Project, please contact us to JOIN today and receive further information on the upcoming registration process. Please note you must be a member of the pro bono programs and agree to accept a family law case to register. Staff members John Ellis, jellis@ribar.com or Elisa King, eking@ribar.com will be happy to provide further details. You may also reach them at 401-421-7758 or 421-7799.

Subject to Supreme Court Rule IV this program has been approved by the MCLE Commission for a total of 5 (including 1 ethics credit) RICLE credits.
