Looking for a fun and safe place to send your kids this summer?

The Summer Food Service Program, funded by the USDA, helps schools and community-based sites like churches and recreation centers offer free meals to kids and teens up to 18 years old throughout the summer. Many Colorado sites also offer engaging activities, so you can be assured that your children are eating nutritious meals in a safe and fun environment.

All are welcome. No income or other qualifications needed.

Todos son bienvenidos. No se requiere comprobante de ingresos ni ningún otro requisito.
