AMERICAN LEGION | MEMBERSHIP IMPACT REPORT
September 2026

VOICES

"Archie cannot change what happened to me, and I would never expect him to. What he can do is help change how I experience today. His presence provides grounding and reassurance. He can help create space around me when I need it and provide a steady, trained presence when my surroundings become overwhelming. Knowing he is beside me gives me greater confidence to enter environments that once required tremendous emotional preparation."
