It has been so much fun getting to know your little ones. The best thing to happen so far was when two of the babies were "singing" (crying) during Children's Chapel. I had them both on my lap trying to calm them down, but they just continued to sing. Another fun observation - most of them try to play "Houdini" and escape from the nursery; Kiernan and I have been keeping the doors closed so they do not run into the hall. I have asked Mike Way and Paul McKenna (my dad) to construct a gate by the play area entrance to the nursery area as there are no adjustable gates big enough to block that opening. Parent volunteers are always welcome and encouraged, but it is also good to drop off your child and go to service. Let the little ones cry, it does not bother us; they will learn that you come back for them. Kiernan and Kelly
