

Orange County Supervisor Doug Chaffee Teams Up with California Consulting for Highly Successful Grant Webinar

California Consulting was honored to be invited by Orange County Supervisor Doug Chaffee to present during a highly successful and well-attended grant webinar hosted by Supervisor Chaffee. The event drew 176 community leaders, including representatives from cities, school districts, nonprofits, and local agencies across Orange County. California Consulting conducted an in-depth presentation focused on state and federal grant writing best practices, offering valuable insights and strategies to help public agencies secure critical funding.

Supervisor Chaffee opened the event with inspiring remarks, emphasizing the importance of leveraging available resources to bring real change to Orange County communities. After Supervisor Chaffee's address, California Consulting Grant Specialist Sam D'Ambrosio led the in-depth and engaging presentation, offering expert guidance on how to develop competitive grant applications and navigate complex funding landscapes. The presentation was followed by a highly detailed and interactive Q&A session that addressed participants' questions and provided tailored advice for specific projects and agency needs.

With record attendance and engaged participants, the webinar served as a valuable platform for collaboration and knowledge-sharing. California Consulting extends our sincere gratitude to Supervisor Doug Chaffee and his team for their leadership and commitment to community development.

"I am glad to have partnered with California Consulting to help our local non-profits, school districts, and cities learn about the best practices to obtain grant monies," said Chair Doug Chaffee of the Orange County Board of Superiors. "By sharing this information, we are helping them find funding to carry out important projects and services to the community."

Stay tuned for future events as we continue empowering local agencies with the tools they need to succeed.
