

Celebrating Castro Valley Unified School District's Grant Success

Castro Valley Unified School District (CVUSD) shines brightly with an exceptional $2,430,033 in grant awards, showcasing a remarkable 498% return on investment.

Over a decade of collaboration between CVUSD and California Consulting (CC) Statewide Senior Project Manager, Dana Leusch, has resulted in significant funding for the district. This achievement highlights CVUSD's dedication to fostering educational excellence and optimizing available resources to benefit its students and community.

CVUSD's proactive approach to grant acquisition has resulted in diverse funding streams, supporting vital programs such as health initiatives, bilingual education, special education, and community engagement.

CVUSD's commitment to environmental sustainability is exemplified through initiatives such as grants for lower emissions school buses and tire-derived products. Additionally, grants from entities like Alameda County BOS, Kaiser Permanente, and the U.S. Soccer Foundation underscore CVUSD's dedication to holistic student development and community engagement. This multifaceted strategy reflects CVUSD's commitment to cultivating safe, healthy, and innovative learning environments.

As CVUSD celebrates this remarkable achievement, we commend their leadership and educators for their unwavering dedication to securing resources that positively impact student outcomes. Their proactive stance exemplifies the transformative power of strategic grant acquisition in advancing educational excellence and community well-being.

Congratulations to Castro Valley USD on their outstanding grant success, paving the way for continued innovation and success in education.
