Matching funds must be incurred during the project performance period.
Link: https://resources.ca.gov/grants/california-museum
Purpose: The Museum Grant Program has approximately 27.7 million available and may be awarded over multiple rounds depending on the competitive pool.

Funding shall be prioritized for museums severely affected by COVID-19 and that serve historically underserved communities or students subject to Title I of the Federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Additionally, projects must meet one of the following priorities:

- serving pupils and teachers at schools eligible to be served under Part A of Title I of the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act;
- serving children in low-income communities;
- supporting museums in engaging or collaborating with underserved communities;
- advancing preservation of at-risk cultural and natural collections and historic buildings;
- improving access;
- supporting the ethical stewardship of culturally sensitive art and artifacts, including, but not limited to, engaging in consultations with California Indian tribes or repatriation; or
- educating the public about critical issues affecting Californians.

The intent of this program is to solicit proposals for program projects or capital projects that assist and enhance museums that are deeply rooted in, and reflective of, previously underserved communities.

Collections Assessment for Preservation Program
Deadline: TBD
Amount: Allocation amounts range from $3,600 to $4,000 per assessor based on the annual operating budget of the institution.
Match: 1:1
https://imls.gov/grants/available/collections-assessment-preservation-program
The Collections Assessment for Conservation (CAP) program is designed to help small and mid-sized museums better care for their collections.
A CAP assessment is a study of an institution's collections, buildings, and building systems, as well as its collections care policies and procedures. The assessment involves a site visit by collections and building assessors, who spend two days touring the museum and interviewing staff and governing officials. The assessors then prepare a comprehensive report that outlines recommendations for improving collections care.
A CAP assessment may assist small and mid-sized museums by:

- Providing recommendations and priorities for collections care specific to your collections
- Facilitating the development of a long-range preservation plan
- Serving as a fundraising tool for future collections projects

- Greater alignment of activities, mission, and resources
- Analysis of its strengths, weaknesses, and opportunities
- Prioritized roadmap for improving operations and meeting standards
- Practices benchmarked to standards
- Enhanced credibility with potential funders and donors
- Improved communications between staff, board, and other constituents
- Expert advice, recommendations, and resources
- Increased capacity for strategic planning
- Preparation for core document verification, accreditation or reaccreditation

MAP offers four different assessments to choose from: Organizational Assessment, Collections Stewardship Assessment, Education & Interpretation Assessment, and Community and Audience Engagement Assessment.
MAP includes the following services, valued at approximately $4,000-$6,000*

- MAP Materials: Workbook & Activities

- Access to an online MAP Portal with customized presentations, activities, and resources to help you through each step of the MAP experience
- Assessment Report: a written report of the Peer Reviewer's findings and recommendations, with prioritized next steps and resources
- The time, expertise, and travel expenses (transportation, meals, incidentals, lodging) for one Peer Reviewer to visit your museum for one to three days to offer guidance and consultation on site
- Peer Reviewer's honorarium
- A dedicated MAP Program Officer for support, guidance, and feedback

*Your museum's MAP participation is IMLS funded but is not a grant. AAM does not disperse any money to your museum. AAM receives grant funding from IMLS to deliver this comprehensive program and service to your museum,
