

California Consulting Reaches Major Milestone: 1,520 Grants Awarded for Our Clients

California Consulting is proud to announce this significant milestone in our journey: our incredible grant writers have successfully secured 1,523 grant awards for our clients since our founding in 2004! This achievement underscores our dedication to providing exceptional grant writing services and highlights the trust our clients place in us.

California Consulting is committed to helping organizations across various sectors with a strong focus on cities, school districts, counties, special districts, and community colleges, to obtain crucial funding to support their projects and initiatives. Our team of skilled grant writers has worked tirelessly to craft compelling applications that align with our clients' missions and goals, resulting in millions of dollars in awarded funds. From education and community development to public safety and environmental initiatives, the grants we have secured are making a tangible difference in communities nationwide. We are honored to partner with such diverse and impactful organizations and to contribute to their success.

"Our incredible grant writers are the backbone of our success. Their expertise and dedication have been instrumental in achieving this milestone, and we couldn't be more proud of their accomplishments," said Dan Rodriguez, Director of Operations.

As we celebrate our grant writers and this extraordinary milestone of securing funding for 1,523 grants since 2004, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to our clients for their continued partnership and to our dedicated team for their unwavering commitment to excellence. We look forward to many more successes together. Thank you for being part of our journey. Here's to continued growth and many more grant awards in the future!
