Meet Your Project Manager Christine Stanley

California Consulting is pleased to spotlight Christine Stanley in our August Newsletter. Christine is a skilled grant writer who has authored nearly $175 million in federal, state, and foundation-funded grant proposals since 2009.

She has worked for San Antonio College and Austin Community College, two of the largest Hispanic-Serving community colleges in Texas, and San Antonio ISD, the state's 12th-largest public school district.

She specializes in Department of Education and National Science Foundation grants for HSIs. From her home base in Fort Worth, Texas, Christine serves educators and nonprofit leaders throughout the state and beyond.
