Dear Friends,

What a year it's been! Individually and collectively, we've been challenged in ways we couldn't have imagined 12 months ago. We've faced loss, grief, uncertainty and fear. We've missed coming together for potluck dinners, Sunday services and coffee hours.

But through it all, we never lost our faith in the power of community. If anything, we stared down a global pandemic and grew stronger. We lifted each other up. And we continued our search for truth and meaning.

Over the past year, FUSW has never skipped a Sunday service—not one. We come together every week to be inspired by the words of our minister, our guest speakers, and our program group members. We come together to be moved by our talented musicians. And we come together to share our joys and concerns.

We have also supported each other in small group ministries and the women's and men's groups. And we've had fun, online and in person, during game nights, book group discussions and at one memorable outdoor concert.

We could go on at length about all the ways we have remained a strong and vital community. Instead, we invite you to read (or re-read) the attached summary of the year (written in January). And as you do, please think about all the ways FUSW meets a need for you. Have you found solace? Inspiration? Connection?

If FUSW has been here for you over the past year, we ask you to be here for our congregation's future. We've come this far on our journey. Let's continue...together.

Warmly,

Rev. Kristina Church, Minister

Craig Butler, President
