Film Screening: Colossus

Thu Mar 14, 7:00 PM

Jacob Burns Film Center, 364 Manville Rd, Pleasantville

Told through the eyes of 15-year-old Jamil Sunsin, Colossus offers a rare and timely look into the aftermath of deportation and family separation amid the current backlash against America's immigrants. Q&A with Steven Choi, Executive Director of the New York Immigration Coalition, and the film's subject, Jamil Sunsin, will follow the film. Reception upstairs in the Jane Peck Gallery. Sponsored by Westchester Community Foundation

League of Women Voters of the Rivertowns

Hot Topics Event: "NY Election Law Reform: Unfinished Business"

Tuesday, March 19, 8:30 - 10:00 AM

Jazz Forum Club, 1 Dixon Lane, Tarrytown

New York ranks near the bottom of states for voter turnout. Not because New Yorkers don't care, but because of barriers to voting. That should change with new election laws. Learn how these new laws will affect you, and what we still need to do so all NY citizens can exercise their right to vote. Speaker: John Nonna

PrideWorks 2019
Wednesday, Mar 20, 7:30 AM – 3:00 PM
Pace University, Pleasantville

PrideWorks produces an annual conference for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer/questioning (LGBTQ) youth, their allies, and the adults in their lives. The PrideWorks conference serves students from more than 70 middle and high schools and 10 colleges. To join our UU volunteers, contact John Cavallero (jcwpony@gmail.com). To help conference organizers, contact Suede Graham, 914-281-1634, info@prideworks.com.

“Owning Our Actions:
An Intimate Look at How We Can Save Ourselves and Our Planet”
Sunday, Mar 24, 11:30 AM
Community UU Congregation, 468 Rosedale Ave, White Plains

Join us for an engaging conversation with Vegan environmental activist Ray Ippolito, who will educate, inspire, and empower us to own our role individually and as a community to save our planet, ourselves, animals, and future generations. Free event – suitable for children and adults. Refreshments provided. Presented by the CUUC Animal Advocacy Social Justice Team. Childcare available with reservation by Wed Mar 20 to CUUCevents@gmail.com.

2019 Westchester Social Justice Forum
Sunday, Mar 24, 12:00 PM Registration; 1:30 PM Opening
SUNY Purchase, Music Building, 735 Anderson Hill Road, Purchase

Join community organizations in Westchester for a social forum to exchange ideas and information, foster solidarity, and celebrate our work to create a more just and equal society. The day will include an opening plenary with Democracy Now! co-host Juan Gonzalez, the Peace Poets, and Soul Fire Farm; workshops on organizing for social and ecological justice; and a culminating cultural celebration. Plan to arrive 12:00 – 12:30 PM for registration. Opening plenary starts promptly at 1:30 PM. Please bring a reusable water container to minimize waste. Learn more at westchestersocialforum.org. View workshops at westchestersocialforum.org/workshops.
