

Local Social Justice Events & Opportunities

as of Wednesday, Jan 9, 2019

Larchmont Mamaroneck Human Rights Commission's 32nd Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr Commemorative Program
"Racism Today: Unpacking the Myth of the North/South Divide"
Sunday, Jan 13, 2:00 – 3:30 PM
Hommocks Middle School Auditorium, 130 Hommocks Road, Larchmont

When it comes to America's racial sins, past and present, a lot of us see people in one region of the country as guiltier than the rest. Join renowned journalists and podcasters John Biewen and Dr. Chenjerai Kumanyika for a robust and engaging presentation about the history and present day geography of racism in the US. Sponsored by CURE - the Coalition for Undoing Racism through Education, in partnership with the Mamaroneck School District. ### Interfaith Initiative to Advance Fair Housing

Thursday, Jan 24, 7:00 PM

WESPAC, 77 Tarrytown Rd, Suite 2W, White Plains

Join us for a dynamic evening of learning and conversation exploring the ways in which where we live matters. Topics will include the history and harms of segregation, your fair housing rights, and how we can work together to build the beloved community where we live by creating more open, accessible, and inclusive communities. This event is part of the Building the Beloved Community interfaith initiative developed by the Fair Housing Justice Center in partnership with Union Theological Seminary and the Interfaith Assembly on Homelessness and Housing. Plenty of free parking on site. Learn more about the Building the Beloved Community initiative at bbcfairhousing.org.
