On behalf of the Membership Committee, our Minister Viola Abbitt, and the members of the First Unitarian Society, new congregants are invited to attend a Path to Membership meeting after services on Sunday, December 8.

Twice a year, we invite newcomers who have been attending regularly to join a Path to Membership conversation with our minister and other key leaders. The discussion is intended to let them know more about congregational life and to help in your discernment regarding becoming a member.

This will be an informal meeting for us to begin to make a personal connection, to get to know each other better, and to share the personal journeys that led us to becoming members. It is also an opportunity for newcomers to get to know each other, and for you to connect your personal interests with the activities of others in the congregation.

A follow up meeting will be scheduled in January to learn more about Unitarian Universalism, the history of this congregation, and the expectations and privileges of membership.

Please reach out to Sara Kelsey (saraakelsey@gmail.com) if you'd like to join us on the 8th or even if you would like to sit down with our minister and congregational leaders at another time to talk.

Lunch and childcare will be provided.
