

Dietary and Food Service Manager State Certification Course

August 15-19, 2022 in Baton Rouge

The Louisiana Nursing Home Association (LNHA) invites long-term care professionals interested in becoming certified as dietary and food service managers to attend this five-day in-person workshop on August 15-19, 2022, at the Crowne Plaza in Baton Rouge. Presenters will train attendees in various food operations, including food purchasing, preparation and menu management. The course will also review nutrition principles. The assigned clinical practicums will prepare each participant to document nutrition information, ensure food safety and manage work teams. A ServSafe test will also be given in conjunction with the certification test. The course instructors will be Leigh Anne Burns, RDN, LDN, John Hickson, CCA, CDM/CFPP, and Jeff DeMars, LNFA.

After completing the course, participants will be able to:

- Utilize the systems approach to procure, produce and serve food to all residents
- Provide a safe and sanitary environment for all employees and residents
- Exercise fiscal accountability in purchasing
- Utilize human resource management techniques
- Provide appropriate quality nutritional care for the residents
- Meet all state and federal licensing and regulatory agency standards
- Constantly strive for a person-centered care approach
