

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT:

Paul Adler
(707) 745-7681
paul.adler@valero.com

VALERO COMMITS $100,000 TO AREA COVID-19 FIGHT
Funding to Provide Support for Community Response Efforts

BENICIA, California, March 26, 2020 — Valero Energy Corporation (NYSE: VLO, “Valero”) and the Valero Energy Foundation are committing $100,000 to support local organizations on the front lines of responding to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The support is part of an overall $1.8 million commitment to help people most in need primarily in cities where the company operates. In addition, Valero also is providing gas cards to selected charitable organizations to provide access to essential fuels and products for their operations.

“The health and the safety of our employees, our families and our communities are critically important,” said Joe Gorder, Valero Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. “We are blessed to be able to continue supporting our community partners as we all work together to overcome this extraordinary situation.”

Some of the local organizations receiving funding include:

- Benicia Community Action Council will receive funding to continue providing services for their clients and Valero fuel cards for volunteers who deliver meals to community members.
- Families in Transition will receive funding to continue providing services for their clients.
- Florence Douglas Senior Center will receive Valero fuel cards to assist their volunteers who deliver meals to senior citizens.
- Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano County will receive funding to continue providing services for their clients.
- Meals on Wheels of Solano County will receive Valero fuel cards to assist their volunteers who deliver meals to senior citizens in Solano County.
- Society of St. Vincent De Paul – St. Dominic’s Chapter will receive funding to continue providing services for their clients.

The Benicia Unified School District also is receiving funding.

“Valero along with the Valero Energy Foundation want to make sure organizations on the front lines have the resources they need to be able to continue to provide vital services,” said Don Wilson, Vice President and General Manager, Valero Benicia Refinery. “We appreciate these organizations and others for continuing to take care of our community.”

About Valero

Valero Energy Corporation, through its subsidiaries (collectively, “Valero”), is an international manufacturer and marketer of transportation fuels and petrochemical products. Valero is a Fortune 50 company based in San Antonio, Texas, and it operates 15 petroleum refineries with a combined throughput capacity of approximately 3.2 million barrels per day and 14 ethanol plants with a combined production capacity of 1.73 billion gallons per year. The petroleum refineries are located in the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom, and the ethanol plants are located in the Mid-Continent region of the U.S. Valero also is a joint venture partner in Diamond Green Diesel, which operates a renewable diesel plant in Norco, Louisiana. Diamond Green Diesel is North America’s largest biomass-based diesel plant. Valero sells its products in the wholesale rack or bulk markets in the U.S., Canada, the U.K., Ireland and Latin America. Approximately 7,000 outlets carry Valero’s brand names. Please visit www.valero.com for more information.

About Valero Energy Foundation

Valero Energy Corporation, through its subsidiaries, and the Valero Energy Foundation are committed to improving the quality of life in communities where Valero has major operations. For a sixth consecutive time, Valero was named to The Civic 50 list by Points of Light as one of America’s most community-minded companies – the top energy company on the list. Annually, Valero, its employees and the foundation collectively generate more than $64 million in charitable support through direct/in-kind donations, fundraising and volunteerism. The foundation provides funding to a variety of nonprofit agencies for programs and services supporting education, basic human needs, health care and civic projects. Through the overwhelming support of sponsors, the foundation’s signature programs, the Valero Texas Open and Benefit for Children, generated more than $15 million in net proceeds in 2019 for charities across the United States.

###