

Longtime Lexian Client, New England Livery Association, Wins 2018 NLA Association Award of Excellence

Rick Szilagyi of Lexian Management and the NELA Board of Directors

This year's Luxury Coach & Transportation (LCT) Awards celebration was held on March 13 in Las Vegas, NV. Lexian Management's longtime client, the New England Livery Association, was extremely proud to be presented with the National Limousine Association's 2018 Association Award of Excellence. The NELA was selected for its advocacy efforts, membership recruitment efforts, educational programs, and charitable giving.

Rick Szilagyi, Lexian Co-Owner and NELA Executive Director, thanked the LCT team, the NLA Board, and the NELA volunteer Board of Directors for their commitment to protecting and improving the livery industry. Rick also thanked non-Board NELA members, who support the association's successful legislative activity in Massachusetts.

As part of the award, the NELA received a $1,000 donation to the charity of its choice, courtesy of the Harold Berkman Memorial Fund. The Board of Directors selected the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation as the recipient of this donation.

Two NELA members also took home awards for Operator of the Year. Congratulations to Above All Transportation/Boston Car Service and United Private Car!
