

TRINITY PRESBYTERY SUGGESTED GUIDELINES

PULPIT SUPPLY HONORARIUM

The Presbytery Office and the Commission on Ministry are often asked for information on the appropriate amount an Honorarium should be when a minister supplies a pulpit on a Sunday, or for other services when the pastor is away, or when the church is without a pastor. The following are suggestions, understanding that a church may pay any amount it chooses. However, a church should consider the time required for preparation and travel.

1. Churches under 50 members are encouraged to provide a minimum honorarium of $100, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply minister must travel.

Note: IRS mileage reimbursement rate applies. Find the current rate on the IRS website: irs.gov.

2. Churches between 50 and 200 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $200, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply must travel.
3. Churches between 200 and 500 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $200 for one service and $300 if there are two services, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply must travel.
4. Churches over 500 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $300 for one service and $400 if there are two services, which should be supplemented by mileage reimbursement if the supply must travel.

Creighton, Rev. Peter Hays	121 Beacon Lane Columbia, SC 29229		(803) 419-5830		pcinusa001@gmail.com
I graduated Muskingum College in 1966). In 1966, I began employment as a production trainee for Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. In 1972. IN 1972, I went to Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and enrolled for an MDiv degree. In December 1985, I graduated from PTS with an MDiv having taken longer to complete my degree than Fred Rogers of the Mr. Rogers Show on educational TV. I then continued my vocation as a 'tent maker' serving Liberty Presbyterian Church in Youngstown, Ohio. After they were successful hiring a full-time minister, I served Covenant Presbyterian Church in Warren, Ohio. I and came to South Carolina as Plant Manager for Owen Electric Steel in 1991. Continuing to preach on Sundays, I was asked by Sion Presbyterian Church in Winnsboro, and served them for 9 years. Finally, I retired and am pleased to fill pulpits as offered.
