HONORARIA FOR SUPPLY MINISTERS

Suggested Guidelines for the Churches of Trinity Presbytery

The Presbytery office and the Committee on Ministry often are asked to for information on the appropriate amount an Honorarium should be when a minister supplies a pulpit on a Sunday or for other services when the pastor is away or when the church is without a pastor.

The following are our suggestions, understanding that a church may pay any amount it chooses. However, a church should take into account the time required for preparation and travel, and consider that this takes time away from a person's family.

THE AMOUNT OF THE HONORARIUM:

1. Churches under 50 members are encouraged to provide a minimum honorarium of $75, which should be supplemented by an additional mileage reimbursement if the supply minister must travel more than a 50 mile round trip to your church. IRS mileage reimbursement rate applies. Find the current rate on the IRS website: irs.gov.
2. Churches between 50 and 200 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $100. The same recommendation regarding mileage applies.
3. Churches between 200 and 500 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $125 for one service and $150 if there are two services. The same recommendation regarding mileage applies.
4. Churches over 500 members should provide an honorarium of not less than $150 for one service and $175 if there are two services. The same recommendation regarding mileage applies.

TO WHOM DO WE OFFER HONORARIA?

The general guideline recommended by Trinity Presbytery is that an honorarium should be provided to any minister filling your pulpit on any occasion when your own minister is not preaching for reason of vacation, study leave, or illness, or when the pulpit supply has been arranged for the convenience of the church. The exception to this guideline is when the guest minister (or lay speaker) is representing an institution, program, or agency of the church and whose cause is being presented or promoted, and whose presence has been requested by the institution, program, or agency.

FOR EXAMPLE: If your minister is on vacation or study leave, and you invite a staff person from one of our institutions, or a member of the Presbytery staff, to fill the pulpit, an honorarium is expected.

However, if the institution itself comes to you and requests an opportunity for its representative to be heard by your church on behalf of that institution, no honorarium is expected.

HOW SHOULD THE HONORARIUM BE PRESENTED?

Preferably the check for the honorarium should be placed in an envelope and discretely given to the guest minister either before or immediately after the service. If it must be mailed, that should be done the next day after the service along with a brief note of appreciation.

If you have questions concerning honoraria, please call the Presbytery office.
