Job Description: Who We Are

First Presbyterian Church can best be understood through our vision and inclusion statements. Our vision statement is "As Everybody's Church we commit ourselves to serving Christ by cultivating mission, inclusion, and community." Our inclusion statement is, "As Everybody's Church we strive to be a faithful, open, and inclusive community. We welcome the full participation of all people of any ability, gender identity, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or any other life circumstance." We are a church of around 700 members that has worked to be a welcoming and inclusive community for all people, including those with disabilities. Our membership includes young families with children, teens, and older adults, spanning all races (though we are a majority white congregation), genders, and sexual orientations. We are active in missions, both local and international. Our facilities are shared by our Hand-in-Hand Early Learning Center, FAR Therapeutic Performing Arts, a non-profit that serves hundreds of clients with disabilities, by offering music, art, and recreational therapy, and are used by multiple groups such as AA and Al-Anon.
