

Our Week in Review

Dear Parents,

I hope that everyone enjoyed our Christmas concert today. The children were amazing and it was wonderful to see each of them filled with so much Christmas joy!

Thank you for sending in candy to create our gingerbread houses on Wednesday. I am not sure who enjoyed it more, the adults or the children. I am so incredibly grateful for everything that each one of you does to help make our classroom an active and delightfully enjoyable learning community (just ask your little one)!

Your generous involvement in your child's preschool experience is having a positive impact. Whether it is coming in to assist in the classroom, helping with lunch duty, or sending in needed materials for the classroom, your kindness is much appreciated.

Next week is going to be exciting and equally busy.

I want to first say a huge thank you to Mrs. Leonard who is orchestrating the 'Adopt A Family' giving project for our class. It is a huge undertaking and she is facilitating it with ease. Thank you to all the families that contributed. One family is going to have a very special Christmas and it is because of your generous donations that this was made possible!

Thursday December 20th is "Pajama Day". Don't forget to have your child wear his/her jammies to school. We will watch a Christmas cartoon and enjoy hot chocolate. Also, the children will be coming home with a few projects and Christmas surprises. I am asking that you send in a sturdy shopping bag Wednesday to help make transporting the projects easier.

Friday December 21st is an early dismissal day. Children will be dismissed at 11:30 AM.

If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Have a wonderful weekend,
Ms. Amanda Delaney
St. Rose Pre-School
