

April and May Bookmark Contest

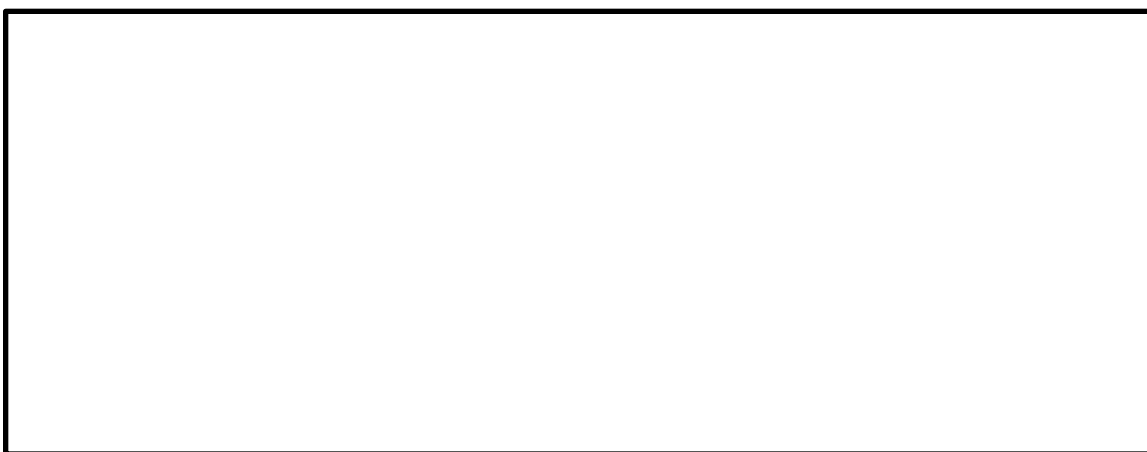

Create a colorful bookmark using the theme of INDUSTRY, TEMPERANCE, or MODERATION-- Ben Franklin's 13 Virtues.

2 Winners per month:

One elementary and one middle school winner will be chosen for April or May virtues:

INDUSTRY, TEMPERANCE, OR MODERATION

Industry: Keep on task. There is a time for work and a time for play-do both with a good attitude.
 Temperance: Control is the key to improvement. Keep your words, actions, and temper in control.
 Moderation: Keep yourself in balance. Focus both on accomplishing things in which you excel and those you do not. Try new things.

Winning entries will be professionally printed and distributed as bookmarks to students in grades K-5. For grades 6-8, the winning entries will be printed as a poster and placed on display in the middle school hallways.

All middle school monthly winners will be entered into a contest to paint the rock in May

Contest Rules:

- Artist must be a current BFA student.
- Entries must be your own creative idea and artwork and should reflect what the selected virtue means to you.
- Entries must include the name of the selected virtue(s) on the face of the bookmark.
- Bookmarks should measure 2 inches by 6 inches and be single sided only.
- The bookmark may be drawn vertically or horizontally.
- You may submit as many entries as you like.
- Bookmark entries will not be returned, so please keep a copy for yourself.
- By submitting a contest entry, you are acknowledging permission for the PTO to use and reproduce your entry's image.

All entries are to be submitted to the collection box in the Shelly Dana Library on or before April 15.

Please complete this form and attach it to your entry.
 Entries with missing or incomplete forms may be considered ineligible.
