

“READY, SET, LET’S TEACH!”

August 5, 2020

9:00 am	OATFACS Business Meeting ODE Update	Mary Jean Gosnell Mary Jo Kohl
10:00 am	Google Classroom Extra’s So you have a google account, but what do you do with it? Come learn some tips and tricks to help to make google classroom easier for you and your students!	Lois Stoll, Mary Jean Gosnell, Cathy Jo Reynolds, Dana Moore
11:00 am	Screencastify/Loom Screen recording and sharing? Where to start, what programs to use, how to use those programs? We’ve got you covered!	Eric Griffith
12:00 pm	EVERFI - Beyond Financial Lit EVERFI is an education technology company that provides no-cost online resources to teachers through the help of local and national partnerships. Teachers use our catalog of blended learning resources focused on skills like social-emotional learning, health and wellness, financial capability, early learning, and career readiness to bring whole child learning to life in their classrooms- whether students are at home or in school. Michelle Fugate, our local representative will be providing PD on how to use EVERFI's resources and incorporate them into your blended learning plans. Feel free to look through the attached course offerings guide to see which courses strike your interest. No need to make an account in advance - Michelle will guide us through that.	Michelle Fugate, EVERFI
1:00 pm	Virtual Assessments Assessing student learning while conducting class from a computer may seem difficult. However, there are many programs that are available. We will introduce and explain several platforms that assess students, by making it fun and interactive.	Cheryl Kies
2:00 pm	Online Textbooks and Resources We all have our favorite textbooks that we rely on to help us share information to our students. But how can we use them when we go virtual? Goodheart-Wilcox is here to show you how to utilize textbooks online and share other resources they have available.	Rick Ditzel, Goodheart-Wilcox

3:00 pm	Lead4Change A widely used and innovative student-led program that educates students about leadership and community service through classroom lessons. Making this intra-curricular projects and lessons. FCCLA Update Find out what is happening with Ohio FCCLA this year!	Sharon Gregory Mary Jo Kohl
4:00 pm	EDpuzzle &amp; Flipgrid Looking for new ways to engage students? EDpuzzle and Flipgrid are here to help! This session will show us how to make more engaging lessons for our students. They both use videos in new and interesting ways. These programs also both partner with Google Classroom for easy grading.	Melissa Muzic
5:00pm	Business Closing, Q&amp;A

August 12, 2020

9:00 am	Hyperdoc/Links Hyperdocs will help you to make concise and interactive lessons for you students. The possibilities are endless for making your lessons students driven.	Melissa Muzic
10:00 am	Bitmoji Classroom Can't have students in your actual classroom? Take it virtual! Virtual Classrooms are a huge hit! Learn how to start, steup, link, manage, and engage students through a Bitmoji Classroom! Excellent culinary resources will be shared to help get you started!	Mike Erickson, Culinary Instructor
11:00 am	Communication Platforms: Smore, Remind, Classroom Tag, Band Communication is going to be more important than ever this year! Find out what programs there are and pick the one that best fits you, your classroom, your students, and parents!	Round table
12:00 pm	Presentation Formats: Keynote, Carnva, Venngage, Slidebean, Animoto The Presentation will look very different this year. When it comes to FCCLA projects, come learn from National FCCLA on how to present and share all the hard work your students have done. New presentation platforms will be shared, and these platforms will be able to be used to complete FCCLA projects this upcoming year!	Christine Hollingsworth, National FCCLA Staff

1:00 pm	Video Formats: TikTok, YouTube, Zoom This session introduces video sharing platforms, such as TikTok and Zoom and shares how teachers can incorporate them as assessments in an educational way. After all, if you can't beat 'em, you might as well join 'em!	Cheryl Kies Luke Vannus Teresa Nissen
2:00 pm	Video Food Demonstrations Food Labs will be very different this year. With ever changing guidelines many of us may turn to using more food demos. How do you do a food demo? Learn some tips and tricks to make your demos fun, fresh, and engaging!	Tim Michitsch
3:00 pm	Online ECE/Child Development Children learn through play! But how can we engage our students online? Come share and take home some ideas to make child development fun and engaging with hands-on activities that can be done from a non-traditional school setting!	Alaina Tharp Courtnee Morris
4:00 pm	FCCLA National Programs Community Service Community Service is HUGE for FCS and FCCLA, but how can we do it in a word that has been converted to a virtual platform? Come learn about FCCLA National Programs, how you can use these programs to spark your students to still give back during a time of uncertainty!	Beth Carpenter, National FCCLA Staff
5:00pm	What's Happening Wednesday Preview General Q&amp;A	Alaina Tharp Karen Curry

These webinars will be recorded and housed on the Ohio FCCLA website(www.ohiofccla.org) under the Adviser Information tab – Professional Development. CEU's will be available.