

NEW ADVISER/TEACHER TRAINING

NOVEMBER 4, 2019

OHIO FFA CENTER – 717 E. 17TH AVENUE – COLUMBUS, OHIO 43211

Congratulations on your new position as a Career Technology Educator (CTE) and Career Technology Student Organization (CTSO) adviser. To assist you this year please join us on Monday, November 4th to connect and engage with your peers across the Family and Consumer Sciences umbrella and network with state staff. This training will be helpful for teachers in Culinary Arts, Early Childhood Education, Family and Consumer Sciences, Hospitality and Teaching Professions as well as any teacher starting a new CTSO chapter.

9:30 AM Registration

9:45 AM Welcome and Introductions

10:00 AM Career Tech 101

- Program Design
- Assessments and Blueprints
- Professional Organization: Professional Development Opportunities and Responsibilities

12:00 PM Lunch

12:45 PM Career Tech Student Organizations (CTSO)

- Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA)
 - Affiliation
 - Career Development Events – Regional, State and National
 - FACTS Grant
 - Chapter and Individual Awards

2:00 PM Meet Subject Matter Experts:

- Early Childhood Education – Jodi Morris, Tallmadge High School
- Teaching Professions – Teresa Nissen, Anthony Wayne High School, Penta Career Center
- Culinary Arts and Hospitality – Andrew Borenstein, Eastland Career Center
- Family and Consumer Sciences – Alaina Tharp, Tri-Valley High School

3:30 PM Next Steps

Registration $35.00 payable to Ohio FCCLA (includes materials and lunch) 4 hours CEU's provided