Agriculture, Nutrition, and Food Systems

2022 Fall Seminar

Wednesdays from 3:10-4:00 p.m., 125 Nesmith Hall (unless noted otherwise)

October 7	Advances and challenges in combatting health disparities in underserved populations to eat healthier and live well at 9:00 am in Cole 219 Josmier Mattei, Harvard University
October 12	American diet and the consequences of how we fill our plate Joel Berg, Hunger Free America (this event takes place in MUB 330/332)
October 19	Cannabis in Maine: Cultivation and Compliance Perspectives from the Adult-Use Industry Will Hastings, Coastal Roots Inc. Assistant Head Grower
October 26	The legacy of UNH research and the evolution of tree fruit production Liza DeGenring, doctoral student
November 2	Protected Agriculture Working Group Anna Wallingford, Becky Sideman, and Rich Smith
November 9	UNH Nutrition Centennial Culinary Celebration - Hors d'oeuvre, and social hour hosted by UNH students in Stacey's area in Cole Hall
November 16	The promise and challenge of underutilized crops in forward-looking food systems Iago Hale, University of New Hampshire
November 30	No seminar
December 7	The multi-faceted effects of supplementing a dairy cow's diet with seaweed Andre Brito, University of New Hampshire

For additional information contact Dr. Dave Mortensen (David.Mortensen@unh.edu)

College of Life Sciences and Agriculture
Agriculture, Nutrition, and Food Systems

Sponsored by the Agriculture, Nutrition, and Food Systems Department, the College of Life Sciences and Agriculture.

Organized by the ANFS Seminar Committee, a Graduate Student and Faculty-led initiative.