HIGH IMPACT TUTORING CONSULTANCY SERIES

This 2 day workshop offers a step-by-step guide to launching a tutoring program in your school or district. Participants will be able to:

- Learn key strategies grounded in research-based design principles
- Determine the data source(s) to identify and group eligible students
- Hire and train tutors using aligned, high quality instructional materials (HQIM) and develop a plan for ongoing tutor support
- Ensure all sites understand the purpose of tutoring, how teachers and tutors work together, and how to support the process
- Draft an implementation plan for all stakeholders involved.

Feedback from this Series includes:

"This was a great training. Very relevant and well organized."

"I appreciate all the information provided. I am excited to bring these strategies back to my colleagues."

"Group conversations around topics were very helpful."

Join us and receive a High Impact Tutoring Planning Workbook, a Tutor Playbook, and support for resource management.
