

Congratulations to our 2019 High School Graduates

After graduating from New Trier Ben Senior will study film in the College of Visual and Performing Arts at Syracuse University. Ben has helped to direct many Christmas Pageants.

A June graduate from New Trier Aidan Cahill will pursue a degree in theatre at Ball State University. He has been a regular chorister at Christ Church.

Trey Walker, a 2019 New Trier graduate, is heading to Indiana University in the fall. He has served as an acolyte and volunteered at A Just Harvest.

Lucy Kreisa is a NT graduate who has been an acolyte, verger, Sunday School teacher, an active volunteer at A Just Harvest and Inspiration Cafe. She has been on two Youth Mission Trips to South Dakota. In the fall Lucy will attend the University of Wisconsin Madison.

Sarah Ganz has been in the Youth Choir for four years. She will head to Kenyon College in the fall after graduating from NT this month.

Jack Gordon, a NT graduate, will attend the University of Tennessee. While at Christ Church Jack has served as an acolyte, participated in two Youth Mission Trips, and volunteered at Rummage and Family Promise.

Kate Burnham graduated from NT this year. In the fall she will attend Hamilton College in New York. Kate started singing in the Primary Choir and continued with the Youth Choir, serving this year as a Head Chorister. She has also served as a lector and participated on several Youth Mission Trips.

Addy Hillerbrand, a recent graduate of NT, will attend Colgate University in Hamilton, NY in September. Addy is a member of the choir, has served as a lay reader, participated in the 2017 Youth Mission Trip, and been an active volunteer for Family Promise, Christmas Angels, and A Just Harvest.

Emmanuel Ruiz started singing at Christ Church with the primary choir and serves as a Head Chorister in our Youth Choir. A June graduate of NT, he will attend University of Illinois Chicago in the fall where he will study Psychology and pre-Occupational Therapy.

Henry Pelinski graduated from New Trier High School. In the fall he will attend Emory University, where he will play baseball.

Cam Walsh is a member of the NT Class of 2019. He will be attending Miami University in Ohio in the fall and plans to study either science or business. Cam has served as an acolyte and a volunteer at A Just Harvest. He also participated in the 2017 Youth Mission Trip.

Molly George is a recent graduate of NT. In the fall she will study liberal arts at Colby College, Waterville, ME. Molly has been singing with us since the first day of Primary Choir and now serves as a Head Chorister for the Youth Choir. She has also been an active volunteer at A Just Harvest and in Christmas Angels.

Alex Singh, a June graduate of NT, will attend the University of Arizona in the fall. Alex has been a core member of Coffee, Christ & Donuts.

Fitz Dickes graduated from NT in June. In the fall he will attend the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University.

Ethan Montgomery is a new graduate of NT. He plans to attend Syracuse University in the fall as a student in the Whitman School of Business. He will also play rugby. Ethan has served as an acolyte and has been an active volunteer at Rummage, A Just Harvest, and Christmas Angels. In addition he was a part of our Youth Mission Trips working with the Lakota Sioux in South Dakota.

Chamberlain Coffee graduated from NT with the Class of 2019. He is currently deciding which of many options to pursue in the fall.

Rachel Gormanous, a graduate of NT High School, will be attending Illinois State University where she plans to major in Special Education. Rachel has been a teaching assistant in our Church School for over five years.

Sydney Kunkler graduated this month from NT and will attend Yale University in the fall. She is a member of our Youth Choir and has participated in several England-Choir trips. Sydney has also been a director for the Christmas Pageant.

Ivy Burck is a member of the NT Class of 2019. She will attend Iowa State in the fall. Ivy has been a participant and organizer of Coffee, Christ & Donuts.

Tim Olson graduated from NT on June 2. He will attend Southern Methodist University where he will study Engineering. Over the years at Christ Church he has served as an acolyte and a verger. He has participated on all three Youth Mission Trips to South Dakota.

Congratulation to our 2019 College Graduates

Drew Parkinson is graduating from the University of Vermont with a B.A. in Art/Computer Science with a minor in English. He is looking forward to developing computer hardware or concentrating fully on his paintings and drawings.

Ellie Kerpan graduated in May from Case Western Reserve University with a B.A. in Biology and a minor in Medical Anthropology. She plans to apply to medical school and will be working as a medical scribe during her gap year.

Emily MacAdam recently graduated from Southern Methodist University with a degree in Applied Physiology and Health Management. Her next step is to work on a Masters Degree in Athletic Training at University of Virginia.

Nick Anaclerio is a 2019 graduate of Carleton College with a B.A. in Sociology/Anthropology.

Laura Bagan graduated from Denison University with a B.A. in Psychology and minor in Communications.

George T. Lamason III recently graduated from the University of Illinois with a degree in Economics and a minor in Statistics. Mid-June he will start at the Chicago office of US Bank as an Investor Analyst.

Tanner Walsh graduated from DePauw University with a B.A. in Political Science. He plans to work in Washington D.C.