

Congratulations to our 2018 High School Graduates

Alex Harris, a June NT graduate, will head to the Communications School at the University of Alabama in the fall where he plans to major in Broadcast Journalism.

Parishioner Wilson MacRitchie will be studying Engineering at the University of Michigan in the fall. The MacRitchies will have all three children at the UOM next year. Go Blue!

Mac Lamason who is graduating from New Trier was a former chorister and is a current acolyte will attend the University of Dayton School of Business.

Riles Walsh will graduate from New Trier in June and will be attending Northwestern University in the fall. He is interested in studying history or science. He was involved with acolyting at Christ Church and participated in the Youth Mission trip last summer to SD.

Dakota Lees Keys, a friend of Christ Church and participant in our 2016 and 2017 Youth Mission Trips to the Lakota Camp in South Dakota is graduating from Rowe Clarke High School and will be attending Kenyon College in Gambier, OH in the fall.

Morgan Fisher is graduating from New Trier and heading north to study Pre-Med at Lawrence University in Appleton, WI. Morgan is a member of the choir and the Benevolence Co. She has been active in Teddy Bear Sunday, Family Promise, and A Just Harvest.

Emma Reder is graduating from New Trier and will attend Scripps College in Claremont, CA this fall where she will major in Neurobiology and minor in Music. Emma has served at Christ Church as an Acolyte and a Lector.

Luke Anaclerio who graduates from New Trier in June will be attending the School of Visual and Performing Arts at Syracuse University where he will major in Photography. Luke sings in our choir and serves as a Head Chorister.

Adam Lloyd-Jones, a June graduate of New Trier, will attend Swarthmore College in PA in the fall where he plans to study liberal arts. Adam sings in our choir and serves as a Head Chorister.

Jeremy Barretta is graduating from New Trier in June and will attend the University of Michigan in the fall with Business/Economics as his intended major.

Will Kerpan graduates from NT in June and will begin a BFA program in Sound Design at the Theatre School at DePaul University. Will first sang in the Primary Choir and is now a Head Chorister.

Kate Roeser is graduating from NT and will be attending the University of Illinois in the fall where she will begin her higher learning in General Studies before deciding upon an area of concentration.

Michael Kolovos will graduate from New Trier in June and will attend American University in Washington, DC to study Political Science and Business. He participated in the West Virginia Mission Trip and was confirmed at Christ Church in 2014.

Freddy Durbin will graduate from New Trier High School in June. He will go to Oakton Community College in the fall where he plans to major in Psychology. At Christ Church Freddy has been a master egg-hider for our traditional Easter Egg Hunts.

Congratulations to our 2018 College Graduates

Matilda Montgomery graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree from the School of Fine Arts at Texas Christian University. Matilda majored in Fashion Merchandising with a minor in Business. Go TCU Horned Frogs!

Garrett Rasmus graduated from the University of Notre Dame with a major in Economics and a minor in Sociology. He is moving to Houston to work as an investment banking analyst at Lazard Freres.

Charlie Durbin is graduating from Indiana University with a BS in Biology and Neuroscience. This fall he will attend the Dr. Scholl College of Podiatric Medicine at Rosalind Franklin University in North Chicago.

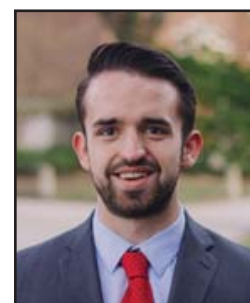

Christopher Myefski will graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Architecture with Honors from the University of Michigan Tubman College of Architecture and Urban Planning. Chris has accepted the Princeton Fellowship and will continue his studies at Princeton University Graduate School toward his Masters of Architecture.

James Burnham graduates from Elon University this month with a BA in Policy Studies.

Ethan Clemmitt is graduating from the College of Engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. His major is Aerospace Engineering with a minor in Physics. Ethan will be moving to Seattle, Washington in August to work for Boeing as a structural design engineer for commercial airplanes.

Crystal Hawley is graduating with Honors from Syracuse University with a dual BS from the Whitman School of Management and the Newhouse School of Communications. She will relocate to NYC in the fall to become a Page for NBC.

Noah Hillerbrand is graduating from the University of Richmond with a BA in Healthcare Studies with a minor in Biology. He is headed to the Virginia Commonwealth University Medical School.

Ellen Mooney Lyman is graduating from Villanova University, cum laude, with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication with a concentration in Public Relations and a minor in Education. She is currently looking for a position in the Chicago area.

Aubrey J. Ellis III graduated with Highest Distinction from Purdue University in December 2017. He received a Bachelor of Science degree majoring in Finance and minoring in Computer Science, Mathematics, and Entomology. Aubrey will begin working for J.P. Morgan in New York City as a Credit Analyst in the Technology, Media and Telecom Group in June.